PUBLIC NOTICE

REPORTING CORRUPTION DURING THE COVID-19 LOCKDOWN PERIOD

Due to the State of Emergency in Namibia following the world-wide outbreak of COVID-19 and the resultant lockdown measures, reports of alleged acts of corruption can be conveyed to the Anti-Corruption Commission through the following email address: anticorruption@accnamibia.org or through the website www.acc.gov.na.

The public may alternatively contact the following staff members:

- Ms. Justina Kanyangela, Acting-Head: Investigation, +26481 127 7486 or jnamukwambi@accnamibia.org, Windhoek.
- Mr. Albert Zaako, Senior Investigating Officer, +264 85 255 6599 or azaak@accnamibia.org, Otjiwarongo.
- Mr. Tomas Shangula, Chief Investigating Officer, +264 85 256 61341 or tshangula@accnamibia.org, Oshakati.
- Mr. Walter Kurz, Chief Investigating Officer, +264 85 128 4917 or kurz@accnamibia.org, Swakopmund.

All other inquiries should be addressed to the Public Relations Officer, at +264 811 660 184 or pr@accnamibia.org.

The Commission will ensure the continuity of its corruption reporting function during the lockdown period.

Issued By:

Josefina Nghituwamata, Chief Public Relations Officer, Tell: +264811 660 184, or pr@accnamibia.org.

Blow the whistle on corruption!
Report every detail, so we can investigate.
